THE SEASON OF EPIPHANY

St Andrew's Clerestory Window, West Side

ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
5801 HAMPTON STREET
412-661-1245
WWW.STANDREWSPGH.ORG

Please participate in our service in whatever way you feel comfortable. Invitations to stand, kneel, or sit, are included in the text. Children are welcome to attend church school or use the resources in the front left corner of the nave, and the nursery will be open for parent/guardian-supervised play (with live streaming of the liturgy). Congregational responses are found in bold text.

Please note that our worship is live-streamed. In the regular course of the service, attendees will not be visible, except at communion. If you do not wish to appear, please let an usher know and we will bring the sacrament to you at your seat. Also, please note that if you are near a camera, your audio may be broadcast.

Please leave this leaflet on the table in the entryway narthex to be reused.

PRELUDE see insert

OPENING HYMN see insert

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

SONG OF PRAISE #408 v. 1 Schütz

Sing praise to God who reigns above,
the God of all creation,
the God of power, the God of love,
the God of our salvation;
with healing balm my soul you fill and every faithless murmur still to God all praise and glory.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

SEE INSERT FOR READINGS AND PSALM.

SERMON

Please stand as you are comfortable for our confession of faith.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The people kneel or are seated.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

For all people in their daily life and work;

For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

For our leaders, this community, the nation, and the world;

For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of your creation;

For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

For all impacted by gun violence, war, economic inequality, and gender based oppression and all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

For those who minister to those who are sick, in need, or suffering.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;

For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the truth.

In our diocese, we pray for [...]. Among our St. Andrew's Mission and Outreach concerns, we pray for [...]

For our siblings in the worldwide Anglican Communion, Sean, our Presiding Bishop, and Ketlen, our bishop, and all other ministers.

For all who serve God in this Church.

We pray especially for [...] who celebrate birthdays or anniversaries this week. Give grace to all whose lives are linked with ours.

May we serve Christ in one another, and love one another as God loves us.

For those who have died in the faith of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone, (especially...). For those who mourn.

We commend them into your hands.

For those who are included in the St Andrew's prayer list and all those we name now, either silently or aloud.

The People share their own prayers and the Celebrant adds a concluding collect.

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Please stand as you are comfortable as we greet one another with a sign of God's peace. The people are then seated for the announcements.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

THE OFFERING

Each week, an offering is collected as a symbol of our life and labor and to support the work of the church. To make a gift online, please scan the code or visit www.standrewspgh.org/giving Thank you.

OFFERTORY HYMN

The Doxology #380 v. 3

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heav'nly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Please stand as the ushers bring our gifts of bread and wine.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, God Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your son Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

THE SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS S-125

Proulx

Holy, holy holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

The people kneel or are seated. The Celebrant continues.

Holy and gracious Creator: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Celebrant Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:
People Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ.

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Beloved Jesus Christ, by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF BREAD

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

FRACTION ANTHEM #340 v. 1

Loh

For the bread, which you have broken, for the wine which you have poured,
for the words which you have spoken,
now we give you thanks, O Lord.

All who are baptized from any tradition are welcome to receive, including young children. If you'd prefer a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available; let the priest know. You may drink from the chalice. Please signal to an usher if you wish to have communion brought to you in your seat.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Epiphany Season @ Saint Andrew's

ADULT EDUCATION

Growth in the Spirit Book Group meets Thursday mornings at 9am on Zoom beginning January 9. We'll read Rachel Held Evans' Searching for Sunday: Loving, Leaving and Finding the Church. The book is part memoir, part exploration of the sacraments of the church. All are welcome to join our conversation, or you may wish to just read along! Contact Wes Rohrer at wmrn@pitt.edu for the link.

Sunday Morning Study meets Sundays at 9am beginning January 12. We'll be reading Borders & Belonging: The Book of Ruth: A Story for Our Time by Padraig O Tuama and Glenn Jordan, both of whom worked with the Corrymeela community in Northern Ireland in reconciliation work.

OUTREACH

Our focus for Epiphany season outreach is Off the Floor Pittsburgh (OTF), an outreach and mission partner for two decades. OTF serves as a furniture warehouse that provides gently used, renovated and new furniture and household soft goods to families and individuals in housing crisis and transition, including the homeless and house fire victims. OTF is now a program of Light of Life mission, and compliments their work in serving the most vulnerable in our community. Since the mid-2000s, St. Andrews has provided support including volunteer delivery teams, soft goods (towels, beddings, etc.), and financial donations.

Stay tuned for more details about a drive to collect for their important work this season. Contact Wes Rohrer, a previous board member and interim director to learn more at wmrn@pitt.edu.

Welcome to Saint Andrew's!

Please fill out a newcomer card if you're here for the first time. Put it in the offering plate, or give it to the clergy.

About our service: This 10:00am service is the Holy Eucharist (or "Holy Communion" or "Mass"), according to a Rite Two of the 1979 Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Our 8:00am service meets in the chapel and is a quiet and contemplative spoken service. We are currently observing the season of Epiphany, which lasts from the fixed day of the Epiphany, January 6 (12 days after Christmas) through the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday (3/5/25). The gospel stories of this season describe various events that manifest the divinity of Jesus Restrooms: For the restrooms, please exit the church at the front pulpit side door. Restrooms (with changing tables) are down the hall on the right. An all-gender restroom is at the top of the stairs immediately to your right; it is also accessible by elevator.

The Episcopal Church: St Andrew's is part of the Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh, which extends south to West Virginia, north to the perimeter of Butler County, and as far west as Somerset. Our diocesan bishop is The Rt. Rev. Ketlen Solak. The head of the Episcopal Church in the US is the Most Rev. Sean Rowe. We are part of the global Anglican Communion, with congregations in 160 countries.

Welcome, children! Children and infants (including all their shrieks and gurgles) are warmly welcomed at St Andrew's. We have kids' programs during the 10am service (with a special children's sermon on the first Sunday of the month), but all children are always welcome in worship as well.

Visit us on the web at www.standrewspgh.org to learn more and subscribe to our email newsletter.

The Heavens Declare the Glory of God

(Benedetto Marcello)

FIRST LESSON

Isaiah 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty, and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said, "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said, "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 138

¹ I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; before the gods I will sing your praise.

² I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name, because of your love and faithfulness;

³ For you have glorified your Name and your word above all things.

⁴ When I called, you answered me; you increased my strength within me.

⁵ All the kings of the earth will praise you, O Lord, when they have heard the words of your mouth.

⁶ They will sing of the ways of the Lord, that great is the glory of the Lord.

⁷ Though the Lord be high, he cares for the lowly; he perceives the haughty from afar.

⁸ Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies; your right hand shall save me.

⁹ The Lord will make good his purpose for me; O Lord, your love endures for ever; do not abandon the works of your hands.

SECOND LESSON

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Now I want you to understand, brothers and sisters, the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures and that he was buried and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you believed.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

SEQUENCE HYMN #379

THE GOSPEL

Luke 5:1-11

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once while Jesus was standing beside the Lake of Gennesaret and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gotten out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to burst. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus's knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were astounded at the catch of fish that they had taken, and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.
